

DR. KOUSHIK DUTTA

Consultant - Neurology

Qualification

MBBS | MD (General Medicine) | DPM | DM (Neurology) | PDF (Epileptology)

Overview

Dr. Koushik Dutta is a distinguished neurologist practising at Manipal Hospitals, Dhakuria, Kolkata, with over 24 years of extensive experience, including 8 years as a specialist. He completed his Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBBS) from Calcutta University, Doctor of Medicine (MD) in General Medicine from Delhi University, and Doctorate in Medicine (DM) in Neurology from The West Bengal University of Health Sciences. Dr. Dutta specialises in various neurological conditions, encompassing Spinal Canal Stenosis, Neurosis, Spondylolisthesis (Waist Shift), Brain Tumours, Brain Diseases, Nerve Entrapment, and Hand Numbness. His clinical expertise extends to the comprehensive management of epilepsy and cognitive neurology. He has contributed significantly to international and national journals with publications on neurology, showcasing his dedication to advancing medical knowledge and enhancing patient care in his field. This reputed neurology doctor in Kolkata is proficient in both English, Bengali, and Hindi languages, ensuring clear and effective communication with a diverse patient population. His linguistic capabilities facilitate comprehensive consultations and patient education, promoting a deeper understanding of neurological conditions and treatment options among individuals from various cultural and linguistic backgrounds. This proficiency underscores his commitment to delivering personalised care and fostering positive patient-doctor relationships at Manipal Hospitals, Dhakuria, Kolkata.

Field of Expertise

- Specialises in the diagnosis, treatment, and management of epilepsy and various cognitive neurological disorders, including dementia and cognitive impairment.
- Expertise in the non-surgical and surgical management of herniated discs (disc herniation) and neck hernia, focusing on minimally invasive techniques for optimal patient outcomes.
- Proficient in diagnosing and treating spinal canal stenosis and spondylolisthesis, employing advanced imaging techniques and personalised treatment plans.
- Extensive experience in the multidisciplinary approach to treating brain tumours, including gliomas and meningiomas, as well as managing complex brain diseases like stroke and neurodegenerative disorders.
- Skilled in diagnosing and managing neurosis and various nerve entrapment syndromes, utilising electrodiagnostic studies and neuroimaging for accurate diagnosis and treatment planning.

Languages Spoken

- English
- Hindi
- Bengali