

PROF. DR. SATYENDRA NATH BARMAN

Consultant - Internal Medicine

Qualification

MBBS (Cal.) (Gold Medalist) | MD (PGI) | MRCP (UK) | FRCP (Lond)

Overview

Dr. Satyendra Nath Barman is a highly experienced specialist of Internal Medicine. He is associated as a consultant at the Department of Internal Medicine at Manipal Hospitals, Dhakuria. His distinguished academic profile includes of MBBS from National Medical College, Kolkata, where he was awarded a gold medal. Further, he obtained an MD (General Medicine) from PGI Chandigarh (One of the prestigious institutes in India), and an MRCP(UK) & FRCP (London). In his career of over 40 years, Dr. Satyendra Nath Barman has been associated with numerous notable healthcare establishments, enhancing his professional journey with hands-on knowledge in patient care. His association with Woodlands Hospital as a consultant physician for the last 8 years is one such example. Dr. Satyendra Nath Barman’s expertise in the field of Internal Medicine enables him to provide accurate diagnosis, tailored treatment and comprehensive management of a range of disorders, including cardiac and endocrine issues. Beyond his clinical expertise, Dr. Satyendra Nath Barman keeps pace with emerging developments in the medical field. He remains dedicated towards continued learning and has contributed immensely through various published studies and presentations. His tenure as Professor & Head of the Department of Medicine at notable medical institutions, along with memberships at various eminent organisations, speaks of his expertise in treating patients with skill & sensitivity.

Fellowship & Membership

- Life Member, FRCP London
- Life Member, FRCP Edinburgh
- Life Member, Cardiological Society of India
- Life Member, Diabetic Association of India
- Life Member, Association of Physicians of India

Field of Expertise

- Internal (General) Medicine - Diabetes

Languages Spoken

- English
- Bengali
- Hindi