

DR. ANURAG VYAS

Consultant - Internal Medicine

Qualification

MBBS | MD (medicine)

Overview

Dr. Anurag Vyas in Ghaziabad, contributes his extensive expertise to patient care. His academic journey began with an MBBS from a premier medical college in Kanpur, followed by an MD in Internal Medicine from a respected university in Meerut. To enhance his clinical training even further, he served as a Senior Resident in the Department of Internal Medicine at one of India’s most prestigious national medical institutes in New Delhi, where he trained under the mentorship of several nationally acclaimed professors. Dr. Vyas's career is marked by a remarkable trajectory through both clinical and academic medicine. He has held significant faculty positions at various medical colleges, progressively advancing from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor, and ultimately serving as the Professor & Head of the Department of Medicine. This leadership role underscores his commitment to medical education and clinical governance. Prior to his specialization, he gained critical hands-on experience as an ER Physician and Junior Resident at major tertiary care hospitals, where he was actively involved in high-stakes emergency transport, including long-distance road and air ambulance services. Beyond his immediate clinical responsibilities, his extensive background in emergency medicine and academic leadership enables him to navigate complex, multi-system disorders with exceptional precision and calm authority. He is deeply committed to mentoring the next generation of physicians, fostering an environment of critical thinking and compassionate care. By actively combining his refined teaching methodologies with day-to-day outpatient care, he ensures that families receive clear, thorough, and highly empathetic communication during consultations. This balanced approach to clinical practice and ongoing professional development makes him a highly trusted consultant for patients seeking long-term preventive health strategies and treatment for challenging chronic illnesses. Dr. Anurag Vyas is a highly accomplished and deeply knowledgeable physician in the field of Internal Medicine, with a distinguished career spanning over two decades. In Manipal Hospital.
