

DR. ADITYA J MISE

Associate Consultant - Urology

Qualification

MBBS | MS (General Surgery) | MCh (Urology)

Overview

Dr. Aditya J. Mise is a urologist with MCh Urology training from Guntur Medical College and a strong foundation in General Surgery. His clinical interests include endourology, minimally invasive urological surgery, and reconstructive urology. With experience in procedures such as URS, RIRS, PCNL, DVIU, and TURP, along with prior teaching experience in General Surgery, he offers structured and evidence-based care for a wide range of urological conditions and emergencies.

Fellowship & Membership

- URS, RIRS, PCNL, ECIRS, DVIU, TURP and Advanced Endourology
- Reconstructive Urology
- Urogynecology
- Andrology
- Uro-oncology
- Pediatric Urology
- Minimally Access Surgery
- Management of urological emergencies

Languages Spoken

- English
- Kannada
- Hindi
- Telugu

Awards & Achievements

- USICON 2025, Chennai – First Prize, Moderated Poster: “Unilateral Single Ectopic Ureter with Ipsilateral Hypoplastic Ectopic Kidney and Bicornuate Uterus”

Talks & Publications

- Indexed Publications
- Mise AJ, Manohar G, Khade HD. Emphysematous pyelonephritis - reappraisal of prognostic factors and outcomes. J Contemp Clin Pract. 2025;11(9):426-434.
- Khade HD, Manohar G, Mise AJ. Clinical profile and surgical outcomes of urogynecologic fistulae. J Contemp Clin Pract. 2025;11(10):435-444.
- Thesis
- Emphysematous Pyelonephritis - Reappraisal of Prognostic Factors and Outcomes with Minimally Invasive Treatment
- National Presentations
- USICON 2025, Chennai – First Prize, Moderated Poster: Unilateral Single Ectopic Ureter with Ipsilateral Hypoplastic Ectopic Kidney and Bicornuate Uterus
- USICON 2025, Chennai – Paraurethral Leiomyoma - Case Report
- USICON 2025, Chennai – Emphysematous Pyelonephritis -

Prognostic Factors & Outcomes

- SOGUS 2024, Nizamabad – Paper Presentation: RIRS vs PCNL for Renal Stones >2 cm
- SZUSICON 2025, Vijayawada – Poster: Holmium Laser VIU in Comorbid Urethral Stricture Patients