

DR. VENKATARAMAN KRISHNAN

Consultant - Neonatology and Paediatrics

Qualification

MBBS | DCH | FRCPCH (UK) | Diplomate American Board of paediatrics

Overview

Dr. Venkataraman Krishnan is a paediatrics and neonatology consultant at Manipal Hospital, Jayanagar, with extensive training and experience of 32 years. With a solid academic foundation and a plethora of knowledge, he is committed to providing complete care for newborns, babies, children, and teenagers. Dr. Krishnan's qualifications include MBBS, DCH, FRCPCH (UK), and a Diplomate of the American Board of Pediatrics. He completed his MBBS from the University Of Calcutta, India, in the year 1987. He also completed a Diploma in Child Health (DCH) from Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, in the year 1988. Before working at Manipal Hospital, Jayanagar, he was a consultant Paediatrician and Neonatologist at Stoke Mandeville Hospital, Aylesbury, in the UK. Dr. Krishnan's passion lies in the specialised care of newborns and infants. He is particularly adept in Neonatal Intensive Care and High Dependency Care in Pediatrics. His wealth of knowledge enables him to manage challenging situations and give critically sick neonates the best treatment possible. He has experience treating illnesses, including neonatal jaundice, congenital disorders, and baby nutritional evaluation. He is a member of the Indian Academy of Paediatrics, Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health, London, UK and Karnataka Medical Council. For the same reason, he is considered one of the best paediatricians in Jayanagar, Bangalore. Dr. Krishnan has a speciality in neonatology; however, he likewise has experience in treating youth sensitivities and asthma. He is focused on providing appropriate treatment and care to children suffering from these problems with all the consideration they need to control their side effects and upgrade their quality of life. He is skilled at performing allergy testing to find triggers and create specialised treatment regimens for each of his patients. Dr. Venkataraman Krishnan is proficient in English, Hindi, Tamil, and Bengali languages. His capability to communicate in numerous dialects makes it workable for him to furnish patients and their families with clear and brief medical advice while coming from different social foundations. Dr. Krishnan provides various medical treatments and services, including neonatal consideration, immunisation, developmental evaluation, and treatment for paediatric illnesses. Moreover, he offers guidance to patients and their families, helping them in exploring an assortment of wellbeing-related troubles and furnishing them with the information they need to conclude what is best for their children. His areas of speciality include adolescent medicine, thyroid disease in adolescents, puberty abnormalities, and hereditary illnesses. Dr. Venkataraman Krishnan has earned the trust and respect of his patients and his peers because of his dedication, knowledge, and compassionate nature. His unwavering commitment to the disciplines of neonatology and paediatrics has made him a precious asset to the medical community, and he continues to have a positive impact on the lives of children and their families.

Field of Expertise

- Neonatal Intensive Care
- High Dependency Care in Paediatrics

- Paediatric Allergy
- Asthma

Languages Spoken

- English
- Hindi
- Tamil
- Bengali