

DR. MOHAN K

Consultant - Urology Transplant & Laparoscopic Surgery

Qualification

MBBS (BMC) | MS (PGIMER ,Chandigarh) | MCh- Urology (BMC)

Overview

Dr. Mohan K is a fairly professional and performed Urology Transplant and Laparoscopic Surgery Consultant at Manipal Hospitals, Millers Road in Bengaluru. With his enormous qualifications and information, he has established himself as a reputable clinical expert in urology. Dr. Mohan K finished his MBBS from Bangalore Medical College and Research Institute (BMC), accompanied by an MS in General Surgery from the celebrated Postgraduate Institute of Medical Education and Research in Chandigarh. He similarly pursued his MCh in Urology/Genito-Urinary Surgery from BMC, solidifying his specialisation in the discipline. Having obtained a large variety of expertise and capabilities, Dr. Mohan K went directly to function as a Senior Resident in Renal Transplant at PGIMER in Chandigarh, wherein he received beneficial revel in and honed his understanding of renal transplantation. He is also a member of reputable clinical agencies and the Bangalore Urological Society (BUS), Urological Society of India (USI), and South Zone Urology Society. Dr. Mohan K's field of expertise encompasses various aspects of urology. He is particularly skilled in utilising LASER technology to treat prostate and kidney stones. Additionally, he is a proficient laparoscopic surgeon for renal tumours, specialising in minimally invasive surgical techniques. Renal transplantation, BMG urethroplasty, female urology, and andrology are among his other areas of expertise. Dr. Mohan K has been recognised for his exceptional achievements throughout his career. He was given the gold medal in MCh Urology from RGUHS, acknowledging his outstanding performance during his postgraduate studies. His expertise and insights have been featured in various publications, including an article in the Times of India (Online) titled "Why are men reluctant to talk about infertility to their doctors? Why does it impact their mental health?" and an article in Vijay Karnataka addressing the topic of muscle weakness in normal delivery. Dr. Mohan is the best urologist and laparoscopy surgeon in Millers Road, Bangalore. With proficiency in multiple languages, including Kannada, Tamil, Hindi, and English, Dr. Mohan K effectively communicates with his patients, ensuring clear and comprehensive consultations. He offers a wide range of services at Manipal Hospitals, including urology consultation, vascular surgery, various surgical procedures such as TURP, hydrocelectomy, varicocelectomy, and specialised treatments like PCNL and lithotripsy. Dr. Mohan K's significant expertise and relentless pursuit of perfection testify to his passion for his profession and commitment to giving his patients the finest care possible. Because of his skill and sympathetic demeanour, he is a well-respected urologist in the medical field and a dependable healthcare provider for individuals looking for urological care in Bengaluru.

Fellowship & Membership

- Senior Resident in Renal Transplant (PGIMER Chandigarh)

Field of Expertise

- LASER for prostate / kidney stones
- Lap surgeon for Renal Tumors
- Renal Transplantation
- BMG Urethroplasty
- Female Urology
- Andrology

Languages Spoken

- Kannada, Tamil, Hindi, English

Awards & Achievements

- Gold medalist in MCh urology
- (RGUHS) .

Talks & Publications

- Mr. Mohan K on Why are men reluctant to talk about infertility to their doctors? Why does it impact their mental health? | Times of India (Online).Click Here
- Dr. Mohan K on Why does muscle weakness appear in normal delivery? | Vijay Karnataka. Click Here