

DR. ASHRAFUL HAQUE

Visiting Interventional - Cardiology Specialist

Qualification

MBBS | MD (General Medicine) | DM (Cardiology)

Overview

Dr. Ashraful Haque is a highly renowned interventional cardiologist with a wealth of experience spanning over 19 years. Currently serving as a visiting interventional Cardiologist at Manipal Hospitals, Mukundapur, Kolkata, Dr. Haque brings expertise in complex structural interventions and mechanical circulatory support to his practice. After completing his MBBS degree, he obtained an MD degree in Medicine and a DM specialisation in Cardiology, demonstrating his commitment to excellence in the field of Cardiology. With a strong dedication to his profession, Dr. Haque specialises in a wide array of interventional cardiology procedures, including Complex Angioplasty, Balloon Mitral Valvuloplasty (BMV), Structural Interventions, Pacemaker Implantation, Cardiac Resynchronisation Therapy (CRT), Coiling, and Peripheral Interventions. He stays updated with the latest advancements in the field to provide his patients with the best possible care. With a focus on a patient-centric approach, Dr. Haque strives to improve the quality of life of his patients by delivering personalised and comprehensive cardiac care. Dr. Haque is proficient in the languages of English, Hindi, and Bengali. His immense proficiency in the field, along with his linguistic expertise allows him to communicate effectively with his patients, providing high-end treatment and care.

Field of Expertise

- Specialises in Interventional Cardiology, particularly complex structural interventions and Mechanical Circulatory Support (MCS).
- Expertise in a wide range of procedures, including Complex Angioplasty, Balloon Mitral Valvuloplasty (BMV), Pacemaker Implantation, Cardiac Resynchronisation Therapy (CRT), Coiling, and Peripheral Interventions.

Languages Spoken

- English
- Hindi
- Bengali