Overview

Dr. Bharath Kadadi is a highly acclaimed Consultant in Hand, Wrist, and Microvascular Surgery Orthopaedics, known for his exceptional expertise and dedication to patient care. He is currently associated with Manipal Hospital Old Airport Road, Bangalore, where he has been providing his invaluable services for the past 10 years. Dr. Kadadi's extensive experience and specialised training make him a trusted authority in managing various upper limb trauma cases, brachial plexus injuries, and a wide range of disorders involving the hand and wrist. Dr. Kadadi holds an MBBS degree and an MS in Orthopaedics, which has laid a strong foundation for his medical career. He has further honed his skills through fellowships in Hand and Microvascular Surgery, as well as Hand and Brachial Plexus Surgery. These specialised fellowships have equipped him with advanced techniques and approaches to effectively treat complex hand, wrist, and brachial plexus conditions. Dr. Kadadi is a member of numerous prestigious medical associations, demonstrating his dedication to professional development and information exchange. He belongs to the Asia Pacific Wrist Association (APWA), the Indian Society of Hand Surgery, the Indian Orthopaedic Association, the Karnataka Orthopaedic Association, and the Bangalore Orthopaedic Society. Dr. Bharath is the best hand surgeon in Bangalore. In 2011, Dr. Kadadi took on the role of Director at the Bengaluru Hand Centre, where he continues to provide specialised care to patients with hand, wrist, and brachial plexus problems. His diligence, responsibility, and independence have been evident throughout his 15-year career, starting in September 2001. Dr. Kadadi is multilingual and can effectively communicate with patients in English, Kannada, Hindi, Tamil, and Malayalam. This linguistic versatility enables him to establish a strong rapport with patients from diverse backgrounds, ensuring a comfortable and personalised healthcare experience. Recognising his exceptional contributions and accomplishments, Dr. Bharath Kadadi has received numerous awards and honours. He was awarded the prestigious Robert Acland Fellowship in 2011 by the Indian Society for Surgery of the Hand, which allowed him to visit the Pulvertaft Hand unit in Derby, United Kingdom, for four weeks. Additionally, he received the award for performing the highest number of successful surgeries in HOSMAT Hospital, Bangalore, for three consecutive years from 2004 to 2006. Dr. Kadadi's dedication and pursuit of excellence have also been acknowledged with the Best Poster Award at the National Hand Conference held in Chandigarh in 2006. Throughout his career, Dr. Bharath Kadadi has garnered a reputation for his exceptional surgical skills and comprehensive management of various conditions affecting the upper limbs. He provides consultation and treatment for tumours, rheumatoid arthritis, compressive neuropathies, upper limb trauma, deformities, spastic limb, and post-traumatic sequelae.
