

DR. JAGADEESH KH

Consultant – Internal Medicine

Qualification

MBBS | DNB (Internal Medicine)

Overview

Dr. Jagadeesh K H is a renowned Internal Medicine Consultant at Manipal Hospitals Sarjapur Road. Dr. Jagadeesh is renowned for his excellent patient care, proficiency in treating a variety of medical ailments, and strong background and experience in his area. Internal medicine is Dr. Jagadeesh's area of speciality, and he focuses on offering complete treatment for a range of illnesses. He provides a holistic approach to healthcare as a General Physician and Consultant Physician, emphasising preventative measures, precise diagnosis, and efficient treatment approaches. He is especially adept at controlling hypertension, assisting patients in maintaining good blood pressure levels and avoiding problems brought on by high blood pressure. Dr. Jagadeesh has made important contributions to the realm of infectious illnesses in addition to his knowledge of general medicine. He has actively participated in the care of COVID-19 patients, contributing his knowledge and skills to the effort to stop the worldwide epidemic. He is dedicated to providing top-notch care in the treatment of various infectious illnesses like dengue fever, typhoid fever, and malaria. Dr. Jagadeesh is respected for his commitment to patient welfare and his ability to construct entrusting associations with people in his consideration. He is renowned for being attentive, taking the time to hear the issues that his patients have before properly comprehending their medical histories and developing a specialised treatment plan. For the same reason, he is a reputed internal medicine doctor in Sarjapur. His patients appreciate his empathetic approach and the confidence he instils in them, making their journey toward recovery more comfortable and reassuring. With his extensive knowledge and experience, Dr. Jagadeesh has also contributed to medical literature. He has authored several talks and publications, including "Low Blood Pressure Tips: Try these 9 measures if blood pressure decreases, know from the doctor what to do in case of emergency." This publication serves as a valuable resource for individuals seeking guidance on managing low blood pressure and understanding emergency protocols. By actively participating in the Karnataka Medical Council, Dr. Jagadeesh demonstrates his dedication to continuing education and following the highest standards of medical ethics. His patients gain from his never-ending quest for knowledge because he keeps up with the most recent developments in internal medicine, ensuring that they receive the most effective, research-based care possible. In conclusion, Dr. Jagadeesh K H is a highly respected Consultant in Internal Medicine at Manipal Hospitals Sarjapur Road. He has established a solid reputation as a reliable healthcare professional thanks to his remarkable abilities, broad experience, and commitment to patient care. Dr. Jagadeesh is a highly sought-after doctor in his area because of his caring demeanour and proficiency in treating a variety of medical ailments.

Field of Expertise

- Internal Medicine

Languages Spoken

- English
- Hindi
- Kannada
- Telugu
- Tamil

Talks & Publications

- Low Blood Pressure Tips: Try these 9 measures if blood pressure decreases, know from the doctor what to do in case of emergency - Dr. Jagadeesh K H, Consultant Internal Medicine, Manipal Hospital Sarjapur Road.Click Here