

DR. RAVINDRA M N

Consultant and Head of the Department - Anaesthesiology

Qualification

MBBS | MD

Overview

Apart from the basic anesthesia training, Dr. Ravindra was trained in cardiac anaesthesiology in 2001 at G B Pant Hospital, and AIIMS New Delhi. Dr. Ravindra M N has also been trained in liver transplant anesthesia at Sir Ganga Ram Hospital New Delhi. Additionally, Dr. Ravindra was part of the team which started and conducted ultrasound-guided N blocks for the first time in Columbia Asia Hospital Yeshwantpur. Extensive hands-on experience in all the above fields. Dr. Ravindra M N has set and has been heading a team of 13 in the Manipal Hospitals Sarjapur Road branch for the past 7 years.

Fellowship & Membership

- Fellowship in Liver transplant Anesthesia from Sir Ganga Ram Hospital, New Delhi

Field of Expertise

- Cardiac anesthesiology 24 years

- Liver transplant anesthesiology 18 years
- Ultrasound-guided Nerve blocks 15 years
- Total experience 24 years.

Languages Spoken

- English
- Kannada
- Hindi
- Telugu

Talks & Publications

- Anesthesia management of ASD closure in Noonan's syndrome.
- Contributed a chapter in the textbook "Understanding Pediatric Anesthesia by Dr. Rebecca Jacob in "Cirrhosis of the Liver in Children.