Overview

Dr. Deepak Singhal is an Anesthesiologist and Interventional Pain Specialist with a decade of experience in providing advanced, patient-centric solutions for chronic pain and cancer-related pain management. Holding an MD in Anesthesiology since 2014, Dr. Singhal combines his solid academic foundation with clinical precision to deliver exceptional standards of care in the field of pain medicine. In 2019, he further expanded his expertise by completing a Fellowship in Interventional Pain Medicine (FIPM), equipping him with cutting-edge proficiency in minimally invasive, non-surgical procedures for complex pain conditions. Dr. Singhal specializes in the treatment of low back pain, knee pain, shoulder pain, and neuropathic conditions, offering personalized care that targets the root causes of discomfort. He has a special focus on cancer pain management, using a compassionate and multidisciplinary approach to enhance the quality of life for patients coping with oncological pain. Renowned for his skill in regenerative therapies, Dr. Singhal employs innovative treatments such as prolotherapy and Platelet-Rich Plasma (PRP) therapy—harnessing the body’s natural healing mechanisms to restore damaged tissues, reduce inflammation, and promote lasting pain relief. His commitment to clinical excellence, continuous medical advancement, and empathetic patient care has positioned him as a leading expert in interventional pain management. Whether treating musculoskeletal disorders or complex cancer pain syndromes, Dr. Deepak Singhal empowers patients with effective, minimally invasive solutions designed to help them live pain-free, active lives. His reputation as one of the best pain specialists in the region is built on his unwavering dedication to innovation, safety, and measurable results in pain management.
