

DR. TANUJA MISHRA

Consultant - Paediatrics

Qualification

MBBS | MD Paediatrics

Overview

Dr. Tanuja Mishra is an experienced paediatrician in Bangalore, having more than 18 years of experience. She's currently working as a Consultant - Paediatrics at Manipal Hospital Varthur Road, Bangalore. Dr. Tanuja Mishra is credited for her wholesome concerns regarding the health and development of children and is admired for her commitment to pediatric care. She completed her MBBS from MKCG Medical College, Odisha, and holds an M.D. in Pediatrics from the renowned S.C.B. Medical College, Cuttack, Odisha. Her academic excellence is complemented by a wealth of practical knowledge on various pediatric conditions and their management. She is a Top Paediatrician in Bangalore. Dr. Tanjua Mishra holds expertise in immunisation, growth monitoring, nutrition, and the care of infectious diseases in children and adolescents. She has a particular interest in the prevention of allergy disorders and sleep disturbances for the healthy and normative lives of children. Based on years of experience, she manages the specific health requirements of every child and brings into play knowledge about growth, body development, and other psychological patterns. Her treatment ways extend to counselling parents about behavioural issues or any chronic diseases. Dr. Tanuja Mishra is a strong advocate of preventive care, ensuring that all children receive full vaccination and the best start in life. Her expertise in promoting child immunisations and ways to attain adequate nutrition is essential for maintaining future health. She is also an expert in consultation on the management of infectious diseases, both preventive and treatment guidelines for various pediatric conditions. This commitment to preventive care instils confidence in her patients and their families. Besides her practice, Dr. Tanuja Mishra is associated with various professional organisations like the IAP BPS or Infectious Disease Society Bangalore. She speaks both English and Hindi fluently, thus reaching out to a great number of patients and families, making it easier for her to handle them. Dr. Tanuja Mishra is committed to a patient-centric approach towards betterment in the scenario of pediatric care and is a trusted healthcare provider for children and their families.

Field of Expertise

- Immunization
- Growth monitoring
- Infections
- Nutrition and behaviour counselling for kids and adolescents
- Allergy and sleep disorder

Languages Spoken

- English
- Hind

Awards & Achievements

- Member-IAP, Member- Bangalore Pediatric Society(BPS)
- Member-Infectious Disease Society Bangalore